Aims	The activities of CP are based on education, offering a broad program of and	courses throughout the year, from learning workshops to masterclasses with activiti	renowned photographers. The center also acts as a photographic collective and es of	develops pedagogical projects in collaboration with other schools and the	institutions, such as Magnum Photos and ICP from New York. This solid organis	experience has allowed CP to lead artistic and pedagogical projects effectively.
ation	Additionally, the center has an extensive network in the audiovisual world.
	Since 2006, CP has participated in three European cooperation projects.
